1. Two new Soviet-built light destroyers were delivered to the East German Navy [redacted]. The destroyers were constructed at a Kaliningrad (Koenigsberg) shipyard [redacted]. East German naval officers characterize the two craft as being extraordinarily fast and possessing great fire power.<sup>1</sup> 25X1
2. Soviet training complements of between eight to ten men commanded by a Kapitaenleutnant Ubramov (or Abramov) are stationed on the destroyers. The German officers on the destroyers allegedly completed a two-year training course in Kaliningrad [redacted] 25X1

1. [redacted] Comment: The destroyers are not listed in Weyers Flottenhandbuch, 1956. 25X1
